(35pts)

Dear Ms. Chang:

I am a freshman at a prestigious university in Taipei. My parents recently lost their jobs because of the current economic downturn. This has forced me to take a part time job in order to support my living expenses and tuition costs. However, my professors have been pretty demanding with the coursework. I have been unable to balance my time between my job and studies, resulting in horrible exam and homework grades. What should I do?
