Composition (100%): Please choose ONE of the two topics below to write a structured and coherent essay that consists of 3-5 paragraphs.

1. The college admission rate reached a record-high of 97% last year, meaning that almost all students have the opportunity to enroll in universities. However, some people worry that high admission rate might lead to a decline in the quality of university students and the quality of university education. To what extent do you agree or disagree? Please state your opinions.
2. When university life is over, many students will face the pressure of finding a job. Nevertheless, with the decline of global economy and increase of unemployment rates, it is getting more and more difficult for a college graduate to find a job. Please give some advice or suggestions to the students who want to find a job after graduation and provide ways to help them prepare for future.
